The Puppy and the Yellow Boot

A puppy finds an old yellow boot near the garden gate. It has a small hole. He takes it to his friend the rabbit.

"Can we use this?" he asks. The rabbit looks inside. "Yes! We can put a plant in it."

They fill the boot with soil. The rabbit gives the puppy a seed. He puts it in the soil and adds a little water.

Every morning, the puppy checks his boot. For many days, he sees only soil. Then one morning, a green leaf appears.

The puppy calls his friend. They put the boot in a sunny place beside the gate. Now the puppy has a plant to watch and water. His old yellow boot has a new job.
